CANDIDATES WORK FAST AS VICTORY IS CLAIMED HERE

Republican Circles Start Rumor That Gaynor Will Be Next Postmaster.

CANDIDATES WORK—3

It was stated Saturday from republican circles that former Mayor Ralph W. Gaynor stands a good chance to secure the postmastership plumb of this city because of new political developments that have taken place within the last week.

Since his defeat in the race for mayor last fall, the former city executive is reported to have bent every effort to secure the appointment. It is being rumored in republican circles that he has been promised the support of Congressman A. J. Hickey, whose voice in the appointment is believed to carry much weight.

The other two candidates for the office to succeed Postmaster Hermon, democrat, whose tenure of office is expected to expire by reason of the change in the composition of certain committees are Walter Michael and David H. Wilbur, now assistant postmaster.

While the Gaynor forces have been claiming that the appointment has been assured their candidate, the supporters of Wilbur do not concur defeat but have assumed a very optimistic attitude, smiling at all rumors of rival claims. While the thunder and outward victory seems to have been assured Gaynor, the inside track, according to local authorities, is still held by the Winter adherents and to clinch a victory in the race rapid strides must be made by the Gaynorites.

The Michael forces are not thought to be strong enough to secure the appointment for their candidate.

AGNES AYRES.
TEMPEL.

Some of the greatest scenes of gloom are gathered together in the drama produced by George Melford, "The Sheik," in which Agnes Ayres and Rudolph Valentino are the featured players. The scenes in the tent of the Sheik, and in the desert stronghold of Omar, the bandit, are highly effective and commendable.

In this picture, which is showing at the Temple theater, today and tomorrow, a most realistic windstorm is featured along with the tent episode. The awe of the onlooker is fastened upon that part of the presentation which shows a sand whirlwind carrying across the waste land threatening to tear the heavy canopy covering from its mooring. The love element is unusually powerful in this drama while the wild riders and the gathering of the tribes are especially pleasing.

GRADUATE NURSES HOLD SUCCESSFUL DISTRICT MEETING

Miss Mary Gladwin Is Principal Speaker at Large At-tended Gathering.

A very successful meeting of the second district of the Indiana Nurses' association was held at the St. Joseph hospital here at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Miss Mary E. Gladwin, who at the present time is recruiting for nurses throughout the middle west, was the principal speaker and delivered a number of interesting details on recruiting work and the present needs.

She pointed out that more nurses were needed at the present time, not because there were less girls taking up the work or because the ranks were becoming thinner, but because the number of hospitals and infirmaries that are being constructed had forced a greater demand upon the ranks of the administrators than they were able to fill.

Miss Gladwin is a nurse veteran of the world war, the Russian war, the Japanese-Russian war and the Spanish-American war. She was in charge of a Red Cross unit at Belgrade, Serbia, in 1914 and remained there after it was captured by the Austrians and until it had been captured by the Serbians.

Miss Gladwin is to speak at the First Methodist Episcopal church here this morning and before a group of girls of the St. Joseph parish in the school hall in the afternoon.

The gathering will be called a get-together meeting and if it proves to be successful may become a steady feature at certain meetings of the Chamber of Commerce.

BUSINESS MEN TO BE GIVEN CHANCE TO ADDRESS CLUB

Chamber of Commerce to Hold Get-Together Meeting Next Tuesday Noon.

Believing that there are many subjects that can be touched upon briefly which will create general interest and at the same time be of great benefit to their organization, the Mishawaka Chamber of Commerce will dispense with a principal speaker at their semi-monthly meeting and luncheon at the Mishawaka Hotel on Tuesday noon and will hold a general meeting where all who desire may bring up any topic of interest to the members.

Every member of the Chamber of Commerce is interested in the general welfare of the city and should be willing to lend a helping hand. The committee on arrangements believes that the proffered opportunity will be of much value to all and are anxious that the members prepare some vital topics to bring before the organization during their luncheon.

The gathering will be called a get-together meeting and if it proves to be successful may become a steady feature at certain meetings of the Chamber of Commerce.

BASEBALL LEAGUE MAY BE COMPLETED

Much Talked Of Factory Organization May Spring Into Being Wednesday.

It was learned last night that a meeting of all industrial baseball team managers to be held at the Mishawaka hotel on Wednesday evening, had been called in an effort to form a contemplated ten-team league, comprising ball nine from the Dodge Mfg. Co., Mishawaka Woollen Co., Studebaker's, Oliver's, Singer's, and from Elkhart, Goshen, Michigan City and Laporte.

The league as planned would be a welcome addition to the various sports events already in progress here. It would mean another field of outdoor amusement for sports lovers.

It is expected that at least temporary officers will be installed at the meeting and several committees appointed to look after the organization of the league.

UNIQUE DISPLAY IN WINDOWS OF FURNITURE STORE

The ninth window of the Heiger Furniture store is attracting much attention by a unique display of the various products that enter into the manufacture of linoleum. Pictures of the cultivation of jute in India, the growing and cutting of flax in western Siberia, dyes used in the stamping of the various patterns colors that are put into the virgin cork burlap, oxidized oil, etc., are shown, as is everything used in the process of the manufacture of linoleum, from the raw materials to the finished article. The display is most interesting.

HERE FOR FUNERAL

Political Job Hunters Active

ALFRED E. MARTIN

Into the rapidly growing list of candidates seeking office and presenting their names for the consideration of the electorate at the May primary were added a number Saturday.

Alfred E. Martin, local attorney, announced himself as a candidate for judge of the superior court No. 1. Mr. Martin is asking nomination on the republican ticket.

Mr. Martin has practiced in this county 12 years and prior to coming to South Bend was associated in the practice of law with Sen. James Eli Watson of Rushville. Mr. Martin is married, has one son and lives at 1043 California av. He is a member of the University club.

Mr. Martin has been active in republican circles for many years, but during that time has never held office, neither elective nor appointive. During the world war he assisted in collecting money drives for the army and aided in selling Liberty bonds. He has been a student of public affairs and questions for the past 25 years.

Mr. Martin, in discussing his candidacy said, that if nominated and elected he would endeavor to maintain the high dignity of the judiciary, administer justice without fear or favor, prejudice or bias, according to the law and the evidence in each case. He added that every person has a constitutional right to his day in court and that justice should be impartial, inexpensive and speedy.

Wilbur Warner Candidate.

Wilbur M. Warner, county clerk, announced Saturday that he would seek another term as clerk of the three courts. It is understood that Mr. Warner has the unqualified endorsement of the republican party in seeking re-election, his friends pointing to his excellent record as evidence of his high qualification.

During Mr. Warner's term of office the business of the county clerk has increased many times.

He has increased all the records of which are kept under the direction of the clerk. So too has probate, naturalization, license, and all other branches of the office been increased heavily.

Mr. Warner resides at 314 N. Taylor and is married.

Michigan must not accept the decree advanced by some that it is proper to spend any sum of money in behalf of a candidate provided it is not used for corrupt purposes. Now is the time for Michigan to condemn this proposition."

Kelly, former lieutenant-governor of Michigan, has been an independent and progressive republican. He has been in congress for nine years and now is in charge of naval appropriations. He was one of the few house republicans who voted against the Knox peace resolution, during the fight against Woodrow Wilson and made a vigorous speech against it.

To select a candidate for the senate ought not to be a difficult task for the republican party in Michigan," Kelly said in a statement.

"The people should be able to make this nomination practically without the expenditure of money."

It is in their duty to do so. It is vital to Michigan that money shall not be a determining factor in this election."

CLUB WOMEN DEFEND GIRLS IN WAGE ROW

TOPEKA, Kan., March 4.—Kansas working girls, backed by labor unions, club women, wifes workers and William Allen White today stood in rebellion against employers who claimed they could dress on $87.50 a year.

Following an announcement from the Kansas industrial commission the women's wage hearing will be terminated next week. Wichita, Atchison, Lawrence and Emporia working girls' leaders here declared that employers would be met with organized opposition in testimony before the committee.

An employers' estimate that girls may eat on 60 cents a day if she is "careful" will be refuted by testimony of women who underwent a "hunger test" to prove it couldn't be done. Miss Neil Baird, member of the Business Women's club of Emporia, said she could not live on $87.50 a year.
